

We invite all organizations with an interest in mitigating and alleviating the impact of disasters in Davidson County to join VOAD, a consortium of voluntary organizations, governmental agencies, and businesses. Our mission is to promote cooperation, communication, coordination, and collaboration in an effort to foster more effective delivery of services to communities affected by disaster. While we are most active in response and recovery, we participate in all four phases of disaster management.

- Preparedness - planning, training, and educational activities performed to increase our capability to respond to a disaster
- Mitigation - actions taken to prevent or reduce the cause, impact, and consequences of disasters
- Response - activities that address the short-term, direct effects of an incident and include immediate actions to save lives, protect property, and meet basic human needs
- Recovery - long term activities that work towards restoring the community to pre-disaster norms or better

The Nashville VOAD is a member of the Tennessee Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster.

Membership with the Nashville VOAD identifies your organization as an integral partner of the community supporting our work in response to disaster and helping with our communities' recovery efforts.

Some of our Goals:

- Increase capacity to provide more efficient services to victims of disasters.
- Better response to disasters through cooperation, communication, coordination, and collaboration.
- Networking and sharing best practices with individuals and organizations active in disaster responses.
- Reduce or eliminate the adverse effect of natural, technological, and human-caused hazards on our socio economic and physical environments through preparedness, mitigation, and education.

2022 Nashville VOAD Letter of Commitment

This memorandum of understanding contains the key guidelines to assuring members conform with decisions that are ethical and in accordance to known legal requirements.

_____ is making a commitment to the Nashville Voluntary Organizations
Name of Organization

Active in Disaster (VOAD) for calendar year 2022. This commitment is with the understanding that:

We are committed to the highest ethical standard and realize our success depends on the ethical conduct of everyone affiliated with the VOAD.

We are not designed for operational management, and the Nashville VOAD itself is not a service delivery organization. VOAD members may offer services and resources during a disaster under their own direction and as their resources allow.

We are not intended to be a competing agency, but an umbrella organization of existing agencies. Each member organization maintains its own identity and independence yet works closely with other agencies to improve services and eliminate unnecessary duplication. As such, members of the Nashville VOAD that deliver resources or services to survivors on an individual or household basis in the aftermath of disaster will use Charity Tracker as a central client intake system to coordinate relief efforts.

VOAD members promote coordination among members to facilitate access to available resources and services.

We are committed to the idea that the best time to prepare, train, and become acquainted with one another is prior to an actual event.

VOAD members will work to increase their internal capacity to be ready to respond as indicated in this Letter of Commitment.

We agree to communicate honestly and openly and avoid misrepresentation while exhibiting respect and fairness toward all with whom we come in contact. We promote a working environment where honesty, open communication and minority opinions are valued.

We will value, champion, and embrace diversity in all aspects of our activities; respecting others without regard to age, race, ethnicity, skin tone, sex, gender, sexuality, religion, ability, and socioeconomic status.

VOAD members agree to abide by the Nashville VOAD core values of cooperation, communication, collaboration, and coordination.

We will ensure that all confidential, privileged, or nonpublic information is not inappropriately disclosed.

By signing this letter of commitment, the organization commits to the work of the VOAD and contributes to the highest functioning of its members.
